TEAM STATISTICS

Avalanche
- Shots: 46
- Power Play: 0-2
- Penalty Kill: 3-3
- Faceoffs: 51%

Los Angeles
- Shots: 18
- Power Play: 0-3
- Penalty Kill: 2-2
- Faceoffs: 49%

TEAM NOTES

Colorado has played five games of a franchise-record, nine-game homestand and is now 3-1-1 on the home stay. Tonight was also the team’s annual Hockey Fights Cancer game at Ball Arena, and the Avs are 9-3-1 in their annual Hockey Fights Cancer game.

The Avs have scored the first goal of the game 17 times this season and own a 13-3-1 record when lighting the lamp first.

The Avalanche is 11-0-0 when leading after two periods.

Colorado matched its season high with 46 shots on goal, the first time this season the club has recorded more than 40 shots in consecutive outings.

The Avs allowed 18 shots on goal, the 15th straight contest the Avs have held their opponent to less than 30 shots, setting a new franchise record for consecutive games without allowing 30 shots.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>15 games</th>
<th>Feb. 2, 2021 - present</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>14 games</td>
<td>Feb. 21-March 22, 2001</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Colorado has surrendered an average of 24.9 shots per game, ranked first in the league, while its 2.36 goals against per game average ranks fifth in the NHL.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Philipp Grubauer recorded his fourth shutout of the season, a new career high (he registered three shutouts in the 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19 campaigns). Nine of Grubauer’s 15 career shutouts have come as a member of the Avalanche, moving him into a tie with Peter Budaj for fourth place on the franchise’s all-time list. His four shutouts are tied for first (Vegas’s Marc-Andre Fleury) for first in the league and are the most by an Avs netminder since 2014-15 (Semyon Varlamov, 5).

The win was Grubauer’s 50th in an Avalanche sweater and 14th of the season, which ranks second among NHL goaltenders (Tampa Bay’s Andrei Vasilevskiy, 16).

Mikko Rantanen scored his team-leading 13th goal of the season and his third game winner. He finished with two points (1g/1a) and has collected nine points (5g/4a) in his last six games.