

Tracey McCants Lewis is Vice President of Human Resources and Deputy General Counsel at the Pittsburgh Penguins. She is the immediate past director of the Tribone Center for Clinical Legal Education at Duquesne University School of Law and tenured Associate Professor of Law. She taught the Civil Rights Clinic and Unemployment Compensation Clinic and coordinated the law school's pro bono program. She is currently an adjunct professor of clinical legal education at Duquesne Law School where she teaches in the Civil Rights Clinic. The clinic focuses on providing re-entry assistance to individuals with a past criminal background through the legal channels of criminal record expungement and the Governor's pardon.

A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar, McCants Lewis was appointed to the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in 2013 and served until 2018. She is a former associate of K&L Gates LLP and served as a law clerk for the Honorable Max Baer of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. McCants Lewis earned her B.A. degree from Gannon University in political science and her J.D. from Duquesne University School of Law.

She served as the chair of the Allegheny County Courts Administration Vision Team Committee in 2012. That same year, she received the NAACP Pittsburgh - Homer S. Brown Award for Legal Service. In 2015, she was the recipient of the YWCA of Greater Pittsburgh Racial Justice and the 2017 Urban League of Greater Pittsburgh's Ron H. Brown Community Leadership Award. She was appointed to the Sports and Exhibition Authority's Pittsburgh Sports Commission in 2020. She most recently received the Martin Luther King Jr. Drum Major for Justice Award from the Homer S. Brown Division of the Allegheny County Bar Association in 2021.